

Calderys Group announcement:
Change in Chief Financial Officer

Paris, France - September 26, 2024

Calderys, a leading global provider of products and services for industries operating in high-temperature conditions, announces the appointment of Sander Bovee as Chief Financial Officer as of October 1st, 2024. He will replace Marielle Raulin-Foissac who will leave the group after a transition period.

Marielle has been integral to successfully establishing Calderys as a standalone business following its carve-out last year and to navigating the recent merger and integration with HWI. Calderys is grateful for all her contributions and her hard work.

Sander is a seasoned financial professional with experience leading global teams and businesses. He joins from Nouryon (previously AkzoNobel Specialty Chemicals), a specialty chemicals company operating in over 80 countries with annual turnover exceeding $5 billion, where he served as Interim Chief Financial Officer and Vice President of Group Control & Treasury. Sander worked at AkzoNobel for the preceding two decades, gaining a wealth of experience across a diverse range of financial positions.

About Calderys
